EVENTS

conneXion 2024 - Early birds can save up to €400!

It's less than 170 days until conneXion 2024! We have a rich agenda planned, and per your feedback from last year we have longer sessions, more technical content, more demos, and a full partner day, with plenty of time set aside for discussions and knowledge sharing!

Please don't be put off booking your ticket because of recent news of seismic activity in Iceland! In the unlikely event of disturbances to air traffic next May, you will be able to use the cost of the registration ticket for another LS Retail event in the future.

We are currently running a limited-time promotion where you can save €400 per ticket. Prices increase on December 16, 2023.

We truly hope you will join us, and please get in touch if you have any questions.

Partner Survey results

We really appreciate the support and dedication from those who took the time to answer our annual survey. This is a very useful barometer for us to look inwards, see how we are doing and where we can improve. We have been studying the results and are already working hard on following up on the feedback and suggestions from you.

Stay tuned for further information on how we will present the survey results to our partners.
